

USUALLY DOES NOT FLUKE !

THE BLOWHOLE IS ON THE LEFT SIDE

FLUKES when starting deep dives

Ziphius cavirostris      Zifio
Ziphius

DORSAL FIN is small and located two-thirds of the body length

BODY COLOUR is brown in juveniles and dark grey to white in adult individuals

Globicephala melas

Globicefalo
Globicéphale commun

Grampus griseus

Grampo
Dauphin de Risso

RELATIVELY LARGE ANTERIOR BODY AND DORSAL FIN

USUALLY HEAVILY SCARRED

"head-standing" is quite common in the Risso's dolphins in the Mediterranean

Tursiops truncatus

Tursiope
Grand dauphin

Stenella coeruleoalba

Stenella striata
Dauphin bleu et blanc

Usually in groups composed by more than 10 individuals

grey band along the flank

black stripes running from behind the eye

Delphinus delphis

Delfino comune
Dauphin commun

In the Med, usually in mixed groups with striped dolphins on each side is an hourglass pattern colored light grey, yellow or gold in front and dirty grey in back

